Professor George Dillman 10th Dan

George Dillman is the foremost authority on Tuite and Kyusho Jitsu (pressure point grappling and striking). His extensive research in nerve study has enabled him to present the theory behind pressure points in both Eastern and Western terminology. This ability coupled with his dynamic teaching style has made Master Dillman one of the most sought after seminar instructors in the world! This seminar is a must for anyone wishing to gain experience in pressure point grappling and striking! The basic session will be targeted to beginners in the study of pressure point techniques. The advance session is open to beginners, but will be targeted to those with more experience and training in Tuite and Kyusho concepts.

What to bring...
